

DOT Sponsored Conferences Over $100K

Fiscal Year 2017

Name of Event	Location	Dates	Brief Explanation of How the Conference Enhanced the Agency's Mission	Total Number of Individuals Whose Travel Expenses Were Paid by the Agency	Total Conference Expenses
FMCSA National Division Administrator and Federal Program Specialists Meeting	Little Rock, AK	February 7-9, 2017	This conference is to establish performance expectations and discuss improvements in executing the Agency's safety program.	139	$170,579.00
2017 National Motor Carrier Safety Assistance Program Planning Meeting	Minneapolis, MN	March 21- 23, 2017	The primary purpose of this meeting is to provide FMCSA's state partners with important information and goals for the coming fiscal year and to facilitate the grant application process	66	$157,728.00
2017 Sun'n Fun International Fly-in & Expo	Lakeland, FL	April 4-9, 2017	The purpose of this event is to provide air traffic control services essential to the safety of the event. It also provides a unique opportunity for the FAA to connect with and educate the general aviation community.	129	$347,453.00
88th Annual Scientific Meeting of the Aerospace Medical Association	Denver, CO	April 30 - May 4, 2017	This annual meeting provides a multi-faceted forum for all aerospace medical disciplines and concurrently provides continuing education credits and maintenance of certification for those attending the meeting. It serves as the focus of global aerospace medicine progress and interactions.	46	$128,421.00
EU - U.S. Transportation Research Symposium No. 5 - "Transportation Resilience: Mitigation of Climate Change"	Washington, DC	May 17-18, 2017	This event is designed to identify research gaps and generate opportunities for future international research collaboration towards the effort to achieve the 2025 Greenhouse Gas Emission reduction goal.	10	$153,111.00
25th ESV Conference	Detroit, MI	June 5-8, 2017	This conference brings together a broad range of vehicle safety professionals from industry, academia, safety advocacy groups, as well as national and international government leaders in the field. It's an opportunity to present, discuss, share and disseminate new research on the latest vehicle safety technologies, programs, and strategies that will enhance future vehicle safety.	45	$385,105.00

DOT Sponsored Conferences Over $100K

Fiscal Year 2017

EAA AirVenture	Oshkosh, WI	July 24-30, 2017	This convention gives the FAA the unique opportunity to inform a large, targeted audience of its safety mission. Through presentations and education exhibits, FAA promotes safe flights, movement, and maintenance to general aviation operators, pilots, and mechanics.	109	$278,781.00
FTA Biennial State Programs Meeting	Washington, DC	August 16-18, 2017	The purpose of this workshop was to discuss program issues and provide technical assistance, training, and program guidance on all formula programs. It also provided information about the latest FTA grant opportunities.	34	$123,505.00
FY2017 Fall Business Meeting	Washington, DC	September 12-15, 2017	The Annual Fall Business Meeting provides an opportunity for the leadership of the Agency to meet face to face to discuss and make decisions on high level corporate matters, including program stewardship and oversight, fiscal accountability, strategic planning and reauthorization legislation. The meeting also serves as an opportunity for the Administrator to engage with FHWA staff to provide a vision for the Agency.	131	$236,364.00
2017 Operations Discipline Support Seminar	Ellicott City, MD	September 25-28, 2017	This discipline support seminar brings together discipline specialists from both field offices and headquarters to share best practices and discuss solutions to challenges in their states.	105	$144,067.00